Government Accommodation to The Freedom Fighters

1641. SHRI SWARAJ KAUSHAL: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) Government's policy regarding allotment of Government accommodation to the freedom fighters and their families;

(b) the names of the allottees, the category of accommodation and the dates of allotment to each one of them; and

(c) the names of the applicants who have been declined allotment under the freedom fighters category during last three years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI PON RADHAKRISHNAN): (a) The existing Policy guidelines regarding allotment of Government accommodation to freedom fighters were issued on 17.11.1997. These guidelines provide for discretionary allotment of Government residential accommodation to freedom fighters, with the approval of the Cabinet Committee on Accommodation, on specific recommendations of the Ministry of Home Affairs. Such allotments are restricted to the overall ceiling prescribed for discretionary allotments, which is 5 percent of the vacancies in Government residential accommodation occurring in each type of such accommodation in a calendar year.

(b) A Statement is enclosed (See below).

(c) Allotments under freedom fighters category are approved by the Cabinet Committee on Accommodation based on the specific recommendations of the Ministry of Home Affairs. No cases of freedom fighters sponsored by the Ministry of Home Affairs has been declined by the Cabinet Committee on Accommodation during the last three years.
